DISCIPLINE
in a
DISCIPLESHIP
School

What does discipline look like in a discipleship school? You might think that the words discipline and discipleship are contradictory terms. This is because discipline is often seen as punitive by nature while discipleship is seen as upbuilding in nature.

In a Christian school, discipleship and discipline must be synonymous, a process aimed at growing young people to 'conduct themselves in a manner worthy of the gospel'.

We regard discipline as a gradual and focussed training expected to produce a specific character or pattern of behavior, a path to becoming more Christ-like, with practices that lead to maturity, wisdom, and discernment. At The King's School, we're willing to invest time, energy, and effort into this discipleship discipline.

approach can set children up for heartache when they enter the workplace one day and realise that rules are not always set up by negotiation and consensus.

The Christian school wants to demonstrate grace in its disciplinary processes. Grace is not licence however and unacceptable behaviour can not be allowed to continue unchecked. Rather consequences will be enforced swiftly and consistently, but always with the child's growth in mind.

As a school, we want to reflect the attitude of Jesus when dealing with our students.

This will mean correcting with firm consistency while still showing unconditional love and acceptance to the student. It is sometimes difficult to maintain the tension between messages of "I'M NOT HAPPY WITH WHAT YOU'VE DONE" and "YOU REMAIN MY BELOVED CHILD" and we try and be clear to bring these messages simultaneously.

Unfortunately today's culture has reinforced the notion that obedience is only given when the child agrees with the particular rule. As a result, children tend to first ask "WHY?" when given an instruction. This type of

POWER ASSERTION IS NEVER IDEAL IN THAT IT CAUSES FEAR OF THE TEACHER, SO WE PREFER TO TRAIN YOUNG PEOPLE TO RESPECT THEIR TEACHERS' AUTHORITY AND OBEY OUT OF THAT LOVE AND RESPECT.

Lord, help us to discipline and disciple in your example.

Is your child battling to concentrate, plan and organise?
Do they have poor memory?
Do they read slowly and hesitantly, or with poor comprehension?
Do they spell words like they sound, for example "rite" for "right"?
Do they have difficulty with mental arithmetic, or is mathematics a real challenge?

Edublox helps children to read faster and learn easier, and sets the foundation for grasping maths. We help learners overcome reading problems and learning obstacles and to realise their highest educational goals.
