When our children are saved and proclaim Christ as Lord and Saviour, we rightly rejoice and celebrate. But because we're aware that there are many distractions and temptations in the world, we hope to help them grow to maturity in their faith. How do we do this?

God himself provides grace for his sons and daughters to grow in their faith. These are called the means of grace, and include things like attending weekly gatherings with other believers, prayer, reading and searching Scripture and partaking in Communion. Learning to pray fervently and attending church are essential.

Prayer. Let's set our hearts on teaching our kids the immense privilege and deep significance of prayer. Packer and Naystrom in their book, Praying: Finding our Way, suggest that prayer should firstly be

"thinking over who it is that you'll be addressing, what he has done to give you access to himself...how you stand related to him...and the truly breathtaking fact that through his word and Spirit the Lord Jesus is building a friendship with you."

This is an attitude that we must consistently demonstrate to our children, so that they may build their own intimate friendship with their Lord.

Church attendance. We also bring our children into a space where they can receive God's means of grace when we are disciplined in attending a weekly gathering of fellow believers in a local church. In this age of "finding your true self" and "expressing your individuality" we find church attendance is dropping all over the world and many people, while still professing their faith, are openly hostile towards the church.

Yet the church is God's bride, his chosen instrument to redeem the world. John Calvin, in Institutes of the Christian religion, cites Cyprian

"He has not God as his father who has not the church as his mother."

Let's get our kids into regular disciplines of prayer and church attendance, to position them for God to dispense his grace for their growth in faith.

Dear Parents

For those of you who make use of the drop-off zone in the mornings, we wish to make an urgent request that you make every effort to keep the line moving smoothly, and keep stops to the shortest possible time period. We are finding that at peak times the queue of cars is stretching back into Malcolm Road, mainly due to parents who stop too long in the drop-off lane. Please help us improve the flow by moving as far forward as possible before stopping, and then have your children disembark as quickly as possible as a courtesy to the parents behind you. We appreciate your cooperation in this matter.

Mr. Ken Langley
