

Accolades policy

Excellentia – which will include all activities not offered by the school, but in which learners excel.

Level 1: Blue Bar Badge and Blue Scroll

ACTIVITY	PRIMARY SCHOOL – BAR BADGE	HIGH SCHOOL – BLUE SCROLL
Excellentia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awarded for representation at district level for activities not offered at the school • The awarding of Excellentia badges is at the discretion of the accolades committee • The accolade committee will endeavour to ascertain the relative level of the cultural/sporting code to ensure it is of the approximate level of a D12 team • Awards will only be made with the accompanying certificates as verification for achievements • The accolade committee reserves the right not to awards codes that do not comply with the schools stated philosophy • Only awards made by recognised national bodies will be considered • The following bodies will be recognised <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Ballet – Royal Academy of Dance Exams and South African Dance Teachers Association: Learners must achieve distinction from the grade 8 level and above ○ Modern Dance: South African Dance Teachers Association: Learners Must achieve Honours at the diamond level ○ Music: UNISA, Royal School of Music and Trinity School of Music will be recognised: Learners must achieve distinctions the Level appropriate to their age cohort ○ Horse Riding: Awards given by The Transvaal Horse Society will be recognised ○ Sporting Codes: Must be awarded by the recognised national body 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awarded for representation at district level for activities not offered at the school • The awarding of Excellentia badges is at the discretion of the accolades committee • The accolade committee will endeavour to ascertain the relative level of the cultural/sporting code to ensure it is of the approximate level of a D12 team • Awards will only be made with the accompanying certificates as verification for achievements • The accolade committee reserves the right no to awards codes that do not comply with the schools stated philosophy • Only awards made by recognised national bodies will be recognised • The following bodies will be recognised <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Ballet – Royal Academy of Dance Exams and South African Dance Teachers Association: Learners must achieve distinction from the grade 8 level and above ○ Modern Dance: South African Dance Teachers Association: Learners Must achieve Honours at the diamond level ○ Music: UNISA, Royal School of Music and Trinity School of Music will be recognised: Learners must achieve distinctions for the criteria given by the IEB for Music as an additional subject ○ Horse Riding: Awards given by The Transvaal Horse Society will be recognised ○ Sporting Codes: Must be awarded by the recognised national body

Level 2: Scroll Badge and Silver Scroll

ACTIVITY	PRIMARY SCHOOL – SCROLL BADGE	HIGH SCHOOL – SILVER SCROLL
Excellentia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awarded if the criteria for a Blue Bar Badge have been met for a second time in the same code • Awarded if a learner is selected to represent a Gauteng team • The accolade committee will endeavour to ascertain the relative level of the cultural/sporting code to ensure it is of the approximate level of a Gauteng team • The criteria of recognition of outside activities are stated in the Level 1 criteria and apply to the awarding of the Scroll Badge 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awarded if the criteria for a Blue Scroll has been met for a second time in the same code • Awarded if a learner is selected to represent a Gauteng team • The accolade committee will endeavour to ascertain the relative level of the cultural/sporting code to ensure it is of the approximate level of a Gauteng team • The criteria of recognition of outside activities are stated in the Level 1 criteria and apply to the awarding of the Silver Scroll

Level 3: Shield Badge and Honours Badge

ACTIVITY	PRIMARY SCHOOL – SHIELD BADGE	HIGH SCHOOL – HONOURS BADGE
Excellentia	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awarded if the criteria for a Blue Bar Badge are met after the Scroll Badge has been awarded in the same code • Awarded if a learner is selected to represent a National team • The accolade committee will endeavour to ascertain the relative level of the cultural/sporting code to ensure it is of the approximate level of a National team • The criteria of recognition of outside activities are stated in the Level 1 criteria and apply to the awarding of the Shield Badge. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Awarded if the criteria for a Blue Scroll are met after the Silver Scroll has been awarded in the same code • Awarded if a learner is selected to represent a National team • The accolade committee will endeavour to ascertain the relative level of the cultural/sporting code to ensure it is of the approximate level of a National team • The criteria of recognition of outside activities are stated in the Level 1 criteria and apply to the awarding of the Honours Badge.